Long bio

Martin Zorko is a DJ, selector and producer from Maribor, Slovenia, active since 2002. More than two decades in clubs have shaped an instinctive approach to pacing, selection and reading a room. Playing vinyl and digital, Martin moves between deep house, hypnotic techno, electro and leftfield electronic music, favouring warmth, tension and character over obvious drops or fixed genre formulas. His strongest settings are opening, sunset, support and extended club sets, where the dancefloor can develop naturally.

Selected appearances include the Aquarius stage at Sonus Festival 2024, return bookings at Mercadillo Sant Jordi in Ibiza and Love and Dance in Koprivnica across three consecutive years, and House of Wonders events in Vienna across four consecutive years. Martin has also played at Club Summum in Ibiza, Castle Festival, Kanjonfest and several venues on the Slovenian coast, alongside an FM4 Digital Konfusion guest mix and a Dancing Vinyl instore session in Barcelona. His first official release, Meet Me on the Other Side, appeared on DIMIZ Music in 2025.

Martin officially began DJing in 2002 with a residency at Yucatan Šentilj (2002–2005) and a weekly Radio Plus show, Deejay Voice. From 2005 to 2008 he was resident at Klub Samsara Maribor, followed by regular appearances at Plus Minus, Studio 55 and Planet Tuš venues across Slovenia. That period covered a broader and more commercial musical spectrum, but built the room-reading and technical experience behind his current underground direction.
